

PROVIDENCE CHURCH Groups CONFERENCE

FRIDAY

Pre-Conference (Church Leaders and Seminary Students) - Groups are Homebase for Transformation. Jared will lead with consideration for church leaders to provide a path for true adult transformation in our unique local contexts. Justin will lead with high-level application: How do Groups affect the disciple making strategy? Pick your model, pick your problem.

Session 1 - Groups, Jesus, and Me.

How are groups part of someone's individual disciple making journey? Why groups matter: Justin and Jared will invite us into 2,000 years of Bible and history to show the clear impact of groups for the church then and today.

SATURDAY

Group Leader Workshop (Lay Leaders) - The Roles of a Group Leader

Session 2 - Groups, Jesus, and Us.

How are groups part of our corporate disciple making efforts as a church? Justin and Jared will teach how the one another commands of scripture guard and guide our relationships in following Jesus together.

PROVIDENCE CHURCH Groups CONFERENCE

BREAKOUTS

Breakout A: Groups and Hospitality - If you have eyes to see it, hospitality is the thing the New Testament points to as the working out of our faith. Justin will share and show how groups can best practice it to redeem time and relationships as we meet.

Breakout B: Groups and Spiritual Gifts - Every group is full of spiritually gifted people. Jared will share and show that a small group environment is the best place to discover, develop, and even deploy those gifts in the local church.

Breakout C: Groups and International Missions - We exist to make disciples. Discover how you can reach the nations as a group.

Breakout D: Groups and Complementarianism - God gifted the church with both men and women to make disciples. This breakout will unpack how men and women work together in groups to advance the mission.

Breakout E: Groups and Leadership Development - Developing and launching leaders is a significant part of discipling. Whether you're a leader or group member, this breakout will discuss how to identify, develop, and launch leaders in your group.

Breakout F: Groups and Conflict - This breakout will unpack how to navigate relational tension in a group setting. Whether it be group-wide or between two individuals, this breakout will discuss how to apply the Gospel in a way that brings unity and resolution.